

Notice of Meeting
To Discuss the Common Boundary Between the Castro Valley and Eden Area General Plans

Date and Time: June 18, 2007 – 6:00 to 8:00 PM
Location: Eden United Church of Christ,
 Oliver Hall
Address: 21455 Birch Street, Hayward
 (unincorporated Cherryland)

Reason for the Meeting:

A request was made by citizens of the Eden and Castro Valley areas to have a meeting at a facility that can accommodate all interested parties. Concerns have been raised by citizens in recent months regarding the proposed shifting of General Plan Boundaries in the El Portal Ridge area.

Purpose of Meeting:

- To provide information about existing and proposed General Plan boundary lines
- To take public input and answer questions related to General Plan boundary lines
- The information gathered from this meeting will be presented to the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors for use as part of their deliberations on this issue

Some Issues Expected to be Discussed:

- General Plan process and the history of the development of the Eden Area and Castro Valley General Plans
- Relationship between general plan boundaries and other boundaries (e.g., there is no direct affect on school districts, postal codes, police services, or other service providers)

Note:

Additional information is provided on the Alameda County website at www.acgov.org/cda. Information may also be reviewed at the Alameda County Planning Offices, 224 West Winton, Room 111, Hayward.
