

FEATHER RIVER CAMP!

Make Oakland Feather River Camp (OFRC) one of your Family Traditions! OFRC has a Family Camp ... where kids get to be kids and parents relax more than they have in a long time. OFRC has been around for 86 years and is a rustic facility within a magnificent natural setting in the Sierra foothills. It is a place that encourages community, connection, joy and a love of nature. Kids get to run free within the safe and wholesome environment.

The family camp provides kid-friendly activities every morning. And parents get two hours of free time to relax or to join in on other activities. Evenings are fun and bonding for the whole gang. At Camp everyone gets their needs met, and three delicious meals a day are included with your lodging in cabins or spacious tents. Many say that it's the easiest and best family vacation ever!
